

Welcome to Date Right. Marry Right.

LEVEL 1- INTRODUCTION TO DATING

ONLINE COURSE

By teaching you a positive approach to dating, I hope this course will help you enjoy the dating process and attract the right type of person to you. As you work through this course and the next few courses you'll incorporate positive attitudes, ideas and build self confidence in your daily life which will be ideal for meeting your spouse.

Here are a few important things to know before you dive right in to the actual learning:

1. It is essential to your experience that you do the lessons in order. Use the worksheets. Do the homework! You can change your life, make dating easier and save yourself a lot of trial and error.
2. Some of the ideas in this course probably will not be brand new to you, but I am hoping you learn a new way of thinking about these skills and how to apply them to your everyday life and your dating life. You might know what to do, but not actually be doing it. This course and the practice that goes with it will help you incorporate the skills into your life and will affect your dating and relationships positively.
3. Printing the bonus points and posting them somewhere you can refer to them will help you to remember what you have learned when you shut your computer.
4. This is the first of a series of mini courses to guide you through the dating and marriage process. I already have Level 2 planned, but I look to you to guide me and let me know what you want to learn more about. Filling out the forms after Lesson 1 and Lesson 8 will help me tailor future courses to what is important to you.
5. Be positive. Enjoy yourself. Dating is an exciting time in your life. As you will learn in this course, adopting a more positive attitude will help you have a good time while looking to meet your life partner. Once you develop a romantic relationship with someone that same positive attitude will help you navigate the road and build a strong foundation for your future together.
6. As you incorporate these skills in your life, you will see how they help you, not only in dating but also in all of your relationships, especially the one you will build with your future spouse. So, date right. Marry right. And have a happy and meaningful life.

This class is geared towards people who are looking to change their lives and are willing to work at it. It is something that only you can do for you. Involving other people or doing the class in a group can limit your self-growth.

Daniella Rudoff is offering concepts that work in general and can't guarantee it will work for each person individually. Just like with a diet, a nutritionist can recommend what to do, but if the person doesn't have one-on-one guidance or if their body has very specific nutritional needs, then the general diet for others may not work for them. This course contains general good advice that works for many people.
